SLASHED WITH A RAZOR

Rit Meador Badly Hurt at Poker Anderson's Hotel.

G. FASTBINDER DID THE DEED

He Was Mad at Poker, and Hunting Him With the Weapon—When He Could Not Find Him He Attacked Meador and Then Escaped Into West Virginia.

The hotel owned by Poker Anderson, at the corner of Walnut and Robinson streets, was yesterday the scene of a serious and unprovoked assault, and as a result Rit Meador has a wound 20 inches long across his breast, and several smaller ones on his head.

Grant Fastbinder, employed in puging clay at the new end of the Knowles pottery, is a boarder at the house, and had some trouble with Poker Anderson on Saturday night. He had been drinking, and had not recovered from his anger yesterday, so he began to hunt for the proprietor. He had a razor in his vest pocket, and went about the house asking all he saw if they knew where Poker was hiding. Not being able to find the man, he went to the room where he slept with Meador, and found him on the bed. It was at 3:30 o'clock and Fastbinder seemed very angry.

"You are the man who called me a coward," he said, as he entered the room.

"Go out and sober up," replied Meador, who was warm and did not want to be disturbed.

"You don't know what you are talking about," angrily cried Fastbinder, and drawing the razor from his pocket began slashing and cutting. Meador was in no position to resist him, and the attack was so sudden that he could do nothing. The first slash across his breast was an awful cut, and as he attempted to get out of the way he received two more cuts on the head. Meador cried out for help, and Fastbinder, realizing what he had done, fled down Walnut street to the river, and crossed to the other side, where he imagined he was safe, for he made no effort to go farther. Meantime the police and Doctor McVoy had been called, and the situation was so plain that Chief Gill hastily crossed the river and arrested Fastbinder. He refused to return to the city without a requisition, and the chief secured a buggy and drove to New Cumberland, where he was handed over to the authorities with instructions to hold him until the papers could be gotten out.

The physician found that Meador was badly hurt, and internal hemorrhages might end his life at any time. The cut across his breast is 20 inches long, and before it was closed with 28 stitches, gaped open wide enough for a man to lay his arm in it. The wounds in Meador's head were found to be much less dangerous, and six stitches soon closed them and made the patient easier. The attending physician stated this morning that with good luck and careful nursing Meador would get along nicely, and his life would be spared, but the cuts are so large that complications might appear, in which event his life would be in danger. He was resting as easy as could be expected this afternoon, but had lost so much blood that he was weak and suffering not a little.

Steps were taken today to have Fastbinder returned to this city for trial, as he had refused to come, except by law. But he evidently changed his mind during the night, for he telephoned to Mayor Gilbert that he would return if an officer came for him. Chief Gill got the word a few minutes after the train had gone, but he caught the next train, and will have his man safely lodged in jail tonight.

THEIR HANDS FULL.

The Police Have Been Busy These Past Few Days.

Charles McGovern, the owner of a name not unknown in police court, dined up with whiskey on Saturday night, and because so noisy that Officers Earle and Jennings placed him under arrest. He fought like a demon for a few minutes, but the officers soon demonstrated that they were in command, and he was taken down.

Sidney Burroughs, a lad who was released from the workhouse only a short time ago, was arrested on Franklin street for attempting to push a street car from the track. Burroughs stood in the middle of the track and demanded of the motorman what he was going to do about it; but that authority simply ordered him to move on, accompanying the words with the threat that he would run him down. Officer Jennings happened to be on

THE MARBLE VILLA AT NEWPORT FOR WHICH BRICE PAYS $5,000 A MONTH.

The wasteful and prodigal expenditure of an Ohio senator who lives in Newport in the summer, in New York in the fall, in Washington in the winter, and in the Buckeye state not at all, is exciting sharp comment on every side. There are thousands of people who enjoy elegance and the liberal spending of money, but there is a difference between liberality and sheer wastefulness, and this difference the Brices do not understand.—N. Y. Press.

the car, and he slipped off and caught Burroughs, calling the patrol to take him in. Burroughs claimed to a reporter that the officer struck him a vicious blow on the head, and stated that he was only going to see his girl when the car almost ran him down.

John Robinson, who was widely known as the proprietor of the Hilbert House, has recently engaged in the saloon business on Seventh street, and prosperity has been smiling upon him. When the sun was beating down with awful severity yesterday afternoon, Robinson could not resist the pleas of his numerous customers, and opened his saloon. Officers Earle and Jennings were expecting the thirsty ones to find a drink or two, and soon locating the saloon, walked in without ceremony. The crowd scattered, and the proprietor said he would call on the mayor at his earliest convenience. He visited city hall this morning, confessed his guilt, and was fined $50 and the costs, all of which he paid. It was the most successful Sunday raid the police have yet made.

On Saturday night Clifford Dawson, an employe of the Knowles pottery, had some argument with J. G. Lee, and left the place. Today he returned with three other men and Foreman Harker, expecting trouble of some kind, sent in an alarm. The lever went down too far, and the fire department hastened to the scene. Upon finding their mistake they returned, and the police captured Joe Keenan, one of the men. Dawson was found a little later, but the others escaped.

Caroline Smith, she who wants heavy damages from the city because the authorities kept her in jail when she refused to pay a fine, came under the law again on Saturday night, and her place in the West End was raided. Chief Gill, with Officers Jennings and Earle, learned that the house was full of visitors and a raid was made. The patrol was called, and two New Brighton men, together with a girl who gave the name of Mamie Strauss, were taken down. The men had come here early in the evening in a buggy, and after driving recklessly around the town, went to the joint where they were captured. One man said he was Jack Holland and paid $10 for his release, and the other was taken out by a friend, who paid the same amount. He said his name was Doughton, but the police have reasons for believing that both protected their identity. The woman put up $12, and was allowed to go.

Mrs. Birdie Teenan, who is known to fame as Birdie Pinkerton, was captured on Thompson hill on Saturday night in company with Freeman French, by Officer Earl. They were taken to jail without ceremony, and a charge of disorderly conduct placed against the woman. She was fined $7, and the amount was paid by the Salvation Army captain, who secured her release. No charge was placed against French, but his wife and baby called on him and there was a pitiful scene, the poor woman mourning the event and the child, not being old enough to understand, cried in sympathy. William Teagarden, the man's brother-in-law, a farmer residing near Negley, also called, and was indignant. To a reporter he said that French was a bad man, and ought to be punished. He had failed to support his wife and child, and had always been a worthless fellow. Teagarden also said that French had served two terms in the penitentiary, and had been in the workhouse several times. The authorities had not decided this morning what disposition to make of French, but he got a salty dose this afternoon being fined $50 and costs the limit for being drunk and disorderly.

AN AGED WANDERER

Died Here Today Among Good Samaritans.

MRS. ALVINA F. WHITE HER NAME

A Nebraska Sufferer, Almost Four Score Years Old, Without Home or Relatives, Came Here Saturday and Died This Morning.

There came before the township trustees yesterday one of the saddest cases that it has ever been their lot to witness.

It was that of Mrs. A. F. White, a lady almost 80 years of age. She came from Steubenville Saturday and was so ill that she could go no farther, so the trainmen assisted her from the cars, and she was taken to the Hotel Grand. There she was made comfortable and Doctor McVoy kindly gave his services to the unfortunate woman, who said she had but a few dollars. She was almost exhausted, but was able to tell a story of hard luck. She said her name was Mrs. A. F. White, and several weeks ago she lost her home by fire in the Nebraska town where she lived. She was a widow, without relatives or friends who could help her, so she scraped together what money she could get, and started for the old ladies home in Cleveland. Her seven days' ride had brought on an attack of bilious fever, and when the attending physician called yesterday morning he found her unconscious. She remained in that condition all day, and little hope was entertained for her recovery. Trustee Lloyd was notified, and commended Proprietor Stewart for his kindness, as well as those about the hotel, who did everything possible for her comfort. Township Doctor Williams took charge of the case Saturday night.

Mrs. White is a small lady, and is said to be 74 years of age. A large goitre on one side of her neck is one of her afflictions, and she is toothless and her lungs seem to have been eaten almost entirely away. Her husband, it was learned, was a soldier in the late war, but the remainder of her history is as yet unknown.

All day yesterday she remained unconscious, and at 4:30 this morning the spirit took its flight and the tired body was at rest. Kind ladies from the Women's Christian Temperance union watched faithfully during her illness and a nurse was secured and was present when death came to relieve her. This morning her effects were examined but it was impossible to tell where her home had been. Nothing indicated that she had come from Nebraska and her satchel was filled with clippings of advertisements from newspapers and written addresses of other firms. She had $1.25 in money beneath her pillow. It had evidently been her desire to travel as an agent in order to make a living, as all the clippings were of "agents wanted." The name of the Chardon Infirmary, Geauga county, was found on a piece of paper, and it is believed that she was in that institution. The name of a Cleveland lady was on a letter, and telegrams and letters will be sent to the different addresses. Meanwhile the body was buried in Spring Grove this afternoon.

MORE ABOUT MUMFORD.

His Calls at the Hospital in Pittsburg; The Funeral Yesterday.

C. A. Hutcheson, who accompanied William Wilkinson to Pittsburg Saturday morning to take charge of the remains of Miss Vesta Wilkinson, or Mrs. Joseph Mumford, and it is not a settled fact yet as to which is her name, returned on the afternoon train the same day. He stated that the facts were as given exclusively in the News Review regarding the death of the unfortunate girl whom Joseph Mumford abandoned. The child, however, was born six weeks ago, and after terrible suffering, which changed the mother from a plump, rosy faced girl to a skeleton, she died in the Foundling institute. It was learned by Mr. Hutcheson and the girl's father at the institute that Mumford and his supposed wife had come there from Imperial, Pa., and the girl was taken sick. Those in charge of the institute did not know that Mumford had a wife and child in this city, so they took Wilkinson's daughter in and cared for her. They state that although the medicines cost about $25, Mumford gave them only $10 at one time, five cents to send him a letter again and one cent the last time to buy a postal card so they could inform him of her condition. After her death he called at the hospital and demanded the clothes of the dead woman and two rings which were still on her fingers; securing these, he returned home and his actions later were as stated in Saturday's paper.

Although Mr. Wilkinson's friends urged him to have a post mortem examination of his daughter's remains he was so overcome with grief that he could not bear the idea of having the body dissected.

As to who sent the telegram to Mr. Wilkinson, a Pittsburg paper seems to be in doubt. It stated that a man supposed to be Mumford had called at Undertaker Flannegan's shop to view the remains and it was also supposed to be him that sent the telegram. This is hardly likely, however, as Mumford was home before the telegram arrived and said nothing about her death.

Mumford, it is understood, states that he married the Wilkinson girl. It was learned this morning that he had fled and Mr. Wilkinson and the authorities are looking for him now.

A THRILLING EXPERIENCE.

Liverpool People on Board a Sinking Boat in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mountford and Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Massey returned on Saturday night from a trip to Europe, bringing home with them a thrilling story of how their vessel was sunk at sea.

On August 20 they were aboard the channel steamer Seaford bound from Dieppe, and were within 25 miles of the English coast when the Lyon, a cargo steamer out from Newhaven for Dieppe struck them. It was very foggy and the Seaford was under reduced speed when the Lyon struck her on the port side, aft of the engine room, and at once commenced to fill at a rapid rate. Captain Sharp made a hasty survey, and finding the damage of a serious character, gave orders for the boats to be lowered. They were all ready when the Lyon came alongside, and as it was evident the Seaford would go down in a few minutes, the passengers were at once transferred to the former vessel. Officers and crew behaved very well, but they could not control all the people, and several bones were broken, one woman falling into the water. The boat foundered stern first within 40 minutes after being struck, and it was impossible to save the baggage. When the passengers were landed at Newhaven the wharf was crowded with people, for the Seaford was overdue, and the fact that the Lyon was returning created the impression that something was wrong.

Mr. Mountford was walking up a stairway when the shock came, and was thrown violently to the floor. Although shocked and hurt, he hastened to find the other members of the party. Mr. Massey was looking out of a port hole at the time, and was painfully bruised, losing his hat and field glasses in the attempt to recover his equilibrium. The pairs became separated in the confusion that followed the shock, but eventually found each other on the Lyon, and were all right. Their baggage was saved because they had nothing but valises with them, while those who had trunks lost them. The Liverpool party suffered no great inconvenience from the accident.

BECAUSE OF A GIRL.

Fierce Fight in a Restaurant on Walnut Street.

A fight occurred in the restaurant of Mrs. Voegtle on Walnut street yesterday afternoon, and for a few minutes there was a lively scene. Four men became involved in a controversy in which the name of a young woman was prominently mentioned, and the argument resulted in one being attacked by the others. Persons who witnessed the affair ended it as soon as possible, and the man escaped with little injury. There were no arrests.

DANIEL SHARP IS DEAD

He Passed Away After Awful Suffering.

BLOOD POISON KILLED HIM

He Was Aiding in the Removal of a Bill Board When He Imagined a Spider Had Bitten Him, and in a Few Days Gangrene Had Appeared—Buried This Afternoon.

Daniel Sharp, the man who was suffering from the effects of a spider bite, died at the residence of William Bridge, on Third street, on Saturday evening at 6 o'clock.

The cause of his death dates back several weeks when he was helping William Bridge to remove a bill board. Feeling a sharp pain in his finger, he remarked that he had a splinter in his hand, but a close examination failed to reveal anything. In a few days the hand began to swell, and blood poison appeared. Then gangrene made its presence known, the man suffering awful agony. He was able to call on his physician every day until Friday, when he was in such condition that he was compelled to go to bed. The poison had taken such a firm hold on his system that there was no such thing as recovery, and he died, suffering terribly. He was 38 years of age, and a member of the sagarmakers union. A meeting was held yesterday afternoon, and it was decided to attend the funeral in a body. Services were held this afternoon and interment was made in Spring Grove cemetery.

TRAPPE WON.

Took the Prize for the Fastest Mile at Wellsburg.

The bicycle races at Wellsburg, W. Va., attracted a large crowd Saturday and East Liverpool was well represented by wheelmen. The racing team of the C. C. C. C. was also there.

Trappe preserved his reputation for speed and delighted the Liverpool enthusiasts by winning the mile open in 2:17. His prize was a $50 fruit dish. World's Fair glass. Trappe is not a track record and state record for a quarter mile track.

In the quarter mile race Hale, Trappe and Irons were close behind Helms and Hale was pushing him hard when Helms lost control of his wheel and ran it across the track. There was a spill, and all the riders except Helms was mixed up in it. Several wheels were broken, and several of the riders were badly hurt, but the Liverpool riders escaped luckily. Hale, however, did not attempt to ride again. It is believed Hale would have won had not the accident occurred. Despite the spill, Trappe made a heat later in 31:25, the competition record for the track, making three records for him during the races. Bert Irons pulled out of the tangled cyclers and finished the race, coming in second in 34:35 seconds.

Goble and Smith, of the Westmoreland wheelmen, won the tandem mile race in 2:02, and made a record.

Trappe has a mascot now. He secured the jaw bone of some deceased woman in a local doctor's office, and says he is not going to get hurt again.

APPOINTMENTS LATE.

The Methodist Conference is All in a Flurry.

Special to News Review.

CANTON, Sept. 23.—At 3:30 o'clock the appointments have not been given out by Bishop Vincent, and no satisfaction can be obtained at the church. There are some objection to certain appointments, and the differences of opinion have not yet been settled. A committee was appointed today to confer with a committee from the town where they meet next for the raising of a fund for the entertainment of the conference. Ministers do not think it right to impose on the people.

THEIR FAVORITES.

Young Ladies Have Their Choice Among the Athletes.

Two prominent young society ladies who have become interested in athletics have each selected a hero from among the ranks of the wheelmen and base ball players, and are doing them honor by clipping all the newspaper items they see of their favorites and pasting them in scrap books. Frank Trappe is the favorite of one, and few things are printed about the rider that are not cut out by dainty hands and carefully preserved. Winnie Mercer is the hero of the other, and as the Washington pitcher has many newspaper comments, this fair maid is well supplied.

JOHN H. CLARK, the Youngstown statesman with silver locks, will stump the state in the interests of the Democratic ticket, yet Clark is the man who severely scored Brice last year at the convention and was as severely scored this year by the senator. Perhaps the dear boys have decided they are even.

A STATE ISSUE.

Now that the Democrats have decided to fight the battle of Colonel Brice upon nothing more substantial than state issues, the Republican press and platform will meet upon that ground without a murmur, for they have an abundance of material that will make a decidedly interesting contest. It will require no great stretch of memory for the average resident to recall that one of the central figures of this campaign was at one time a candidate for governor, and he made the race on state issues. Aided by a host of lieutenants, who claimed as earnestly to represent reform as did their leader, they plunged into the thickest of the fray and the handsome lawyer of Hamilton was made governor. Then came the results.
He promised faithfully to give much, but he certainly gave little. The legislature was the most corrupt in the history of Ohio, and the loath-some breath of scandal swept through the corridors of the state house and spread throughout the commonwealth.
The party gobbled everything in sight for its faithful heeler, and when it was found that there was not enough to go around, questionable means were used to create snags of the downiest softness. At length the governor was compelled to call the legislature in special session at great expense to the state, but the effort to wipe out the blunders met with defeat. When Campbell asked the people for another term the treasury was empty and the voters, seeing they had been deceived, were prepared for him. He was turned down, as he will be turned down again. Ohio has no more use for the Democratic party or for Mr.
Campbell. Neither has it use for Mr.
Brice, the New Yorker, who not only controls the Democratic ticket but owns the party leaders all over the state, as he owns the men who work on his railroads. There is far too much honesty of purpose in the average Buckeye to admit of the continuance of the protectorate Mr.
Brice believes he has established.

Irving W. Larimore, physical director of Young Men's Christian association, Des Moines, Iowa, says he can conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm to athletes, gymnasts, bicyclists, foot ball players and the profession in general for bruises, sprains and dislocation; also for soreness and stiffness of the muscles. When applied before the parts become swollen it will effect a cure in one-half the time usually required. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, Sixth and West Market streets, drugists.

AFTER BAD NEGROES.

Two Attempts by Lynchers at Lexington, Tenn.

TRAINS HELD UP AND SEARCHED.

The Mob Unable to Find the Culprits to String Them Up—The Same Crowd
That Was Driven Off by Bullets Last Week.

NASHVILLE, Sept. 23.—Two attempts have been made by mobs to capture Harrison Fuller and Frank Simpson, both negroes, who were the cause of an attack upon the Lexington jail some nights ago. At Lexington a mob of citizens held up a train bound for Camden, where it was supposed the negroes had been taken for safekeeping, and forced the conductor to carry them to Hollow Rock. Here they attempted to bulldoze a Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis conductor to take them to Camden, but he bluffed them, threatened them with the consequence of holding up a mail train, and the mob got off.

Some, however, paid their way to Camden and found the negroes were not there, and attempted to hold up a freight train and make the conductor carry them without pay. But they did not succeed and have not yet located the prisoners. These are the same negroes who were attempted to be lynched at Lexington early last week and who fired on the attacking mob, killing and wounding several members.
The negroes have been brought to this city for protection.

TWO SENSATIONAL MURDERS.

Much Excitement Over These Crimes in Wood County, W. Va.

WHEELING, Sept. 23.—Two sensational murders in Wood county, near Parkersburg, have caused much excitement in that vicinity.

At the town of Waverly Thomas P.
Harness, a prominent and wealthy farmer, stabbed Mark Perry, a negro boy aged 20 years, in the abdomen, and the victim died in 30 minutes. The trouble started when Harness's buggy came in collision with a wagon driven by Henry Thomas. Harness began to abuse the latter, when Perry interfered, with the above result. Harness then mounted his horse and escaped.
He is still at large.

The other murder occurred at a dance two miles from Lukeck. Henry Caveny shot Albert E. Burd through the heart, killing him instantly. During the row, Silas Caveny also used a revolver, firing into the crowd, but doing no damage.
The Caveny's disappeared after the trouble, but it is understood they will surrender themselves tomorrow. The row was the result of a feud between the Caveny and Burd families.

THE CUP CHALLENGER.

Mr. Rose Says He Will Soon Order a Yacht to Race Defender.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—The town residence of Mr. Rose, who has challenged the New York Yacht club for a race for the America's cup, is a beautiful house in Hilt. Mr. Rose is a tall athletic looking man about 40 years of age with a bronzed face. He was asked for particulars regarding his challenge for the America's cup, and replied:

"Yes, I am going to challenge for the cup. I have sent a preliminary message to the secretary of the New York Yacht club, and I have also communicated with Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan on the subject. The former challenge will go through the Royal Victoria Yacht club next week, as soon as the designer and I shall have agreed on the dimensions of the yacht which is to be built, and other particulars which it is necessary to incorporate in the challenge. The yacht will be designed by Soper, and it will be built at Fay's yard in Southampton. I can give you no further particulars, as really they are not settled yet."

Will Develop New Territory.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 23.—The new Cumberland Oil and Mining company has been organized here as follows: President, W. C. Strubbe; vice president, Charles Davis; treasurer, W. E. Hutton; secretary, Frank Van Winkle;
directors, Strubbe, Hutton, Va-Winkle, Oliver Kinsey and Charles Kahn. They purchased 112,000 acres of coal and oil lands on the Cumberland river along the dividing line between Kentucky and Tennessee. Today they closed contracts for opening 30 wells, having made arrangements with the Standard Oil company, to take the output.

FITZ. STARTS FOR TEXAS.

He Won't Say Anything Except He Will Do His Best.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Bob Fitzsimmons has left for Texas on a special train of three cars over the Pennsylvania railroad. He was accompanied by Mrs. Fitzsimmons, Martin Julian, his manager, Mrs. Julian, Charlie White, the pugilist's trainer, Emil Rober, German wrestler. "Nero," the fighting lion, was also of the party, together with four crates of live chickens, which will constitute Fitzsimmons' referee article of food on the journey.
Fitzsimmons will go to Corpus Christi, Tex., where he will train until he goes to Dallas to fight for the championship.
Speaking on the subject of the referee to be selected for the fight with Corbett, Fitzsimmons said: "The difference in relation to the referee has been finally settled. The names of six men will be submitted one week before the fight, three men by each side, and then these six men will select one from their number who will be the referee."
Fitzsimmons would have nothing to say as to what he thought would be the outcome of the fight, except "I shall do my best."

HOT WEATHER OVER.

The Weather Man Says the Wave Will Be Broken Today.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Willis L.
Moore, chief of the weather bureau,
has given out the following weather
bulletin:

"The hot wave will be broken some time today, probably in the afternoon in Chicago, St. Louis and in the states of the upper Mississippi valley, central Mississippi valley, upper lake region,
Texas, Arkansas and west portions of Tennessee and Kentucky and Eastern Minnesota. A decided and sudden fall in temperature of not less than 30 degrees will be ushered in by heavy thunderstorms and rain, by several days of cool weather."

Much Suffering in Madagascar.

PARIS, Sept. 23.—Mail advices received here from Madagascar reveal a deplorable condition of affairs in that island. In hospitals calculated for the accommodation of 250 men are crowded 600 French soldiers lying upon improper bunks and but insufficiently attended by doctors and nurses. In each hospital hundreds of patients are lying groaning upon the bare ground and suffering for lack of medicine and food, while the filthiness that prevails everywhere about them is indescribable.

U. S. Supreme Court to Soon Meet.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The United States supreme court will meet again on Monday, Oct. 4. On that day after assembling, the justices will call upon the president. The business of the court will commence on the 15th. The first week will be devoted to miscellaneous business. The important cases were set for early hearing and will be called Monday, Oct. 21.

Drunk Beside His Wife's Coffin.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—In calling at the home of his sister, who had died,
Joseph Mulvey of West Chester found
Edward Flannigan, his brother-in-law, drunk beside the coffin that contained the body of his wife. Mulvey was so shocked and vexed that he grasped a shovel and belabored the intoxicated man about the head unmercifully. In the scuffle the coffin fell to the floor.

Women Jump From a Train.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Two women, Katie Martin and Bridget Nolan, got on a train at Riverdale, and after the train pulled out discovered that they were going in the wrong direction, and before anyone could interfere both had jumped off. Miss Nolan was unhurt, while Miss Martin was thrown under the wheels. She was picked up in a dying condition.

Weavers Won't Strike.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Sept. 23.—The Weavers' association has voted almost unanimously not to strike. The meeting was crowded to the doors. Secretary James Whitehead of the association and Secretary Matthew Hart of New Bedford Weavers' association advised the weavers not to strike while the present condition of the market existed.

Americans Won Victory.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—The international athletic games Saturday resulted in an overwhelming victory for the Americans. They won every contest, the Englishmen gaining second place in five events. Four world's records were broken and one was equaled.

PLEADS FOR CUBANS.

A Chicago Minister Preaches a Sensational Sermon.

THE UNITED STATES SHOULD ACT.

The Time Has Come For America to Say That Spain's Oppression of Cuba Must Cease—He Declares the Cubans Are Not Rebels but Patriots.

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—The Rev. Dr. H.
W. Thomas caused somewhat of a sensation Sunday by declaring from his pulpit that the time has come for America to say that the oppression of Cuba by Spain must come to an end. There was a large attendance of the best people in the city, and the speaker was frequently interrupted by outbursts of applause. Dr. Thomas said in part:

"Among the modern nations of the earth Spain is old. She was once in the foreground, one of the greatest and proudest and most prosperous of nations. But she was always on the side of royalty and ecclesiasticism. She belonged to the old order of government and religion. Other countries have advanced, have heard the call and caught the inspiration of a new light, while Spain has stood still, has gone backward. She has not absorbed other people of the earth and caught inspiration from them. Her religion is Roman Catholic, and is supported by the state.
No fault can be found with that. She has a right to her religion, which is one of the great wings or powers of the church.

The Protestant religion is tolerated, but worship must be in secret and no notice of meetings may be given. There are 60,000 protestants in the country, and an attendance at worship of 8,000 in a population of less than 16,000,000; there are 5,000,000 men and 7,800,000 women who cannot read and write. Education flourishes in England, Germany, France and Italy, and I therefore argue that Spain—this moribund nation that has failed to get into line with the practice of this great age —has forfeited the right to be a dictator, much less a ruler among the nations of the earth. It has the right to exist in ignorance and superstition and to manage its own affairs, but not the right to cruelly oppress its own subjects.

"The time has come for America to say that this oppression of Cuba must come to an end and that very soon.
All our memories are on the side of freedom. When we struggled France held out a helping hand and Russia sent her warships to cruise off New York. Can we supinely stand still and let Spain crush the life out of these struggling patriots? I don't call them rebels. They are patriots, as brave as men ever were, and are struggling for the rights of men as we once struggled.
[Applause.] Governments move slowly;
but there is no need to delay the expression of our sympathy. It is fitting that the voice of the pulpit, the press and the people of this great city, the center of the country, should be heard first."

AN AMERICAN ABUSED.

He Will Ask the State Department to Compel Spain to Pay Indemnity.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—John Sowers, an American sugar planter at Sagua,
Cuba, who was imprisoned by General Campos and subsequently ordered to summarily leave Cuba, has passed through Washington on his way to his old home at Warrenton, Va. He will return to Washington in a few days to present his case to the state department. Sowers claims that he was in no wise identified with the insurgents, but was nevertheless imprisoned by Campos' orders for ten days and subjected to many indignities. When released he was forced to leave Cuba on 24 hours' notice. The brief time allowed did not give him an opportunity to arrange for the departure of his wife and children, who are still in Cuba.

Mr. Sowers will ask the state department to demand a heavy indemnity from Spain for interfering with the rights of a law-abiding and inoffensive American citizen. Mr. Sowers says he believes the Cubans will be successful in achieving their independence.

Woman's Brave Fight With a Dog.

WHEELING, Sept. 23.—Mrs. Davis
Keyser, who lives near Huntington, has had a terrible battle with a mad dog. A great many dogs in the neighborhood have been attacked with hydrophobia, and when Mrs. Keyser attempted to drive a strange canine from her premises, the brute sprang at her, seized her right breast between its jaws and tore the flesh in a horrible manner. The animal was frothing at the mouth and was biting Mrs. Keyser on the arms when she grappled its jaws and held them apart until assistance arrived. She is in a serious condition.

He Wants to Aid Campos.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 23.—Ventura
Farrea, a Spaniard residing in the state of Nichoacan, proposes to raise 200 Spanish cavalry here to go to Cuba and aid Martinez de Campos. The Spanish papers here applaud this scheme as patriotic, while denouncing any attempt to enlist Cubans to aid the patriots.

Doctor Killed in a Runaway.

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—Dr. William Le-Roy Wilcox, the oldest medical practitioner in Irving Park, has been almost instantly killed in a runaway. He was driving a team to a surry, and there were with him his son Leon and his stable boy. The boys escaped without serious injury.

Killed in a Freight Wreck.

PERCY, Ills., Sept. 23.—A freight train on the Mobile and Ohio road has been wrecked a few miles north of here.
Charles Gerlach of St. Louis was killed and Thomas Conlin of St. Louis badly hurt. The men were stealing a ride on the train and were riding on the car-bumpers.

Three Boys Drowned.

BUFFALO, Sept. 23.—Four boys in a boat have been swamped by a passing tug. The eldest, James Kingsley, managed to escape by hanging onto the boat. The other three, William Boore, 15 years, John Kingsley, 13, and William Denny, 11 years of age, were drowned.

Caution about the Use and Selection of Spectacles

"Persons having normal vision will be able to read this print at a distance of 14 inches from the eye with ease and comfort. Also be able to read it with such ease and comfort. If unable to do so your eyes are defective and should have immediate attention. When the eye becomes tired from reading or sewing, or if the letters look blurred and run together, it is a sure indication that the vision is defective. The vision will be restored to normal by the use of spectacles and have perfectly fitted surfaces. Continued use of these spectacles will result in permanent injury from the constant strain upon the muscles of accommodation to supply the defects in the eye."

JOHN H. CLARK, the Youngstown statesman with silver locks, will stamp the state in the interests of the Democratic ticket, yet Clark is the man who severely scored Brice last year at the convention and was as severely scored this year by the senator. Perhaps the dear boys have decided they are even.

A STATE ISSUE.

Now that the Democrats have decided to fight the battle of Colonel Brice upon nothing more substantial than state issues, the Republican press and platform will meet upon that ground without a murmur, for they have an abundance of material that will make a decidedly interesting contest. It will require no great stretch of memory for the average resident to recall that one of the central figures of this campaign was at one time a candidate for governor, and he made the race on state issues. Aided by a host of lieutenants, who claimed as earnestly to represent reform as did their leader, they plunged into the thickest of the fray and the handsome lawyer of Hamilton was made governor. Then came the results. He promised faithfully to give much, but he certainly gave little. The legislature was the most corrupt in the history of Ohio, and the loathsome breath of scandal swept through the corridors of the state house and spread throughout the commonwealth. The party gobbled everything in sight for its faithful heebers, and when it was found that there was not enough to go around, questionable means were used to create snags of the downiest softness. At length the governor was compelled to call the legislature in special session at great expense to the state, but the effort to wipe out the blunders met with defeat. When Campbell asked the people for another term the treasury was empty and the voters, seeing they had been deceived, were prepared for him. He was turned down, as he will be turned down again. Ohio has no more use for the Democratic party or for Mr. Campbell. Neither has it use for Mr. Brice, the New Yorker, who not only controls the Democratic ticket but owns the party leaders all over the state, as he owns the men who work on his railroads. There is far too much honesty of purpose in the average Buckeye to admit of the continuance of the protectorate Mr. Brice believes he has established.

Irving W. Larimore, physical director of Young Men's Christian association, Des Moines, Iowa, says he can conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm to athletes, gymnasts, bicyclists, foot ball players and the profession in general for bruises, sprains and dislocation; also for soreness and stiffness of the muscles. When applied before the parts become swollen it will effect a cure in one-half the time usually required. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, Sixth and West Market streets, druggists.

AFTER BAD NEGROES.

Two Attempts by Lynchers at Lexington, Tenn.

TRAINS HELD UP AND SEARCHED.

The Mob Unable to Find the Culprits to String Them Up—The Same Crowd That Was Driven Off by Bullets Last Week.

NASHVILLE, Sept. 23.—Two attempts have been made by mobs to capture Harrison Fuller and Frank Simpson, both negroes, who were the cause of an attack upon the Lexington jail some nights ago. At Lexington a mob of citizens held up a train bound for Camden, where it was supposed the negroes had been taken for safekeeping, and forced the conductor to carry them to Hollow Rock. Here they attempted to bulldoze a Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis conductor to take them to Camden, but he bluffed them, threatened them with the consequence of holding up a mail train, and the mob got off.

Some, however, paid their way to Camden and found the negroes were not there, and attempted to hold up a freight train and make the conductor carry them without pay. But they did not succeed and have not yet located the prisoners. These are the same negroes who were attempted to be lynched at Lexington early last week and who fired on the attacking mob, killing and wounding several members. The negroes have been brought to this city for protection.

TWO SENSATIONAL MURDERS.

Much Excitement Over These Crimes in Wood County, W. Va.

WHEELING, Sept. 23.—Two sensational murders in Wood county, near Parkersburg, have caused much excitement in that vicinity.

At the town of Waverly Thomas P. Harness, a prominent and wealthy farmer, stabbed Mark Perry, a negro boy aged 20 years, in the abdomen, and the victim died in 30 minutes. The trouble started when Harness' buggy came in collision with a wagon driven by Henry Thomas. Harness began to abuse the latter, when Perry interfered, with the above result. Harness then mounted his horse and escaped. He is still at large.

The other murder occurred at a dance two miles from Lubek. Henry Caveny shot Albert E. Burd through the heart, killing him instantly. During the row Silas Caveny also used a revolver, firing into the crowd, but doing no damage. The Caveny's disappeared after the trouble, but it is understood they will surrender themselves tomorrow. The row was the result of a feud between the Caveny and Burd families.

THE CUP CHALLENGER.

Mr. Rose Says He Will Soon Order a Yacht to Race Defender.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—The town residence of Mr. Rose, who has challenged the New York Yacht club for a race for the America's cup, is a beautiful house in Hilt. Mr. Rose is a tall athletic looking man about 40 years of age with a bronzed face. He was asked for particulars regarding his challenge for the America's cup, and replied:

"Yes, I am going to challenge for the cup. I have sent a preliminary message to the secretary of the New York Yacht club, and I have also communicated with Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan on the subject. The former challenge will go through the Royal Victoria Yacht club next week, as soon as the designer and I shall have agreed on the dimensions of the yacht which is to be built, and other particulars which it is necessary to incorporate in the challenge. The yacht will be designed by Soper, and it will be built at Fay's yard in Southampton. I can give you no further particulars, as really they are not settled yet."

Will Develop New Territory.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 23.—The new Cumberland Oil and Mining company has been organized here as follows: President, W. C. Strubbe; vice president, Charles Davis; treasurer, W. E. Hutton; secretary, Frank Van Winkle directors, Strubbe, Hutton, Va. Winkler, Oliver Kinsey and Charles Kahn. They purchased 112,000 acres of coal and oil lands on the Cumberland river along the dividing line between Kentucky and Tennessee. Today they closed contracts for opening 26 wells, having made arrangements with the Standard Oil company, to take the output.

FITZ. STARTS FOR TEXAS.

He Won't Say Anything Except He Will Do His Best.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Bob Fitzsimmons has left for Texas on a special train of three cars over the Pennsylvania railroad. He was accompanied by Mrs. Fitzsimmons, Martin Julian, his manager, Mrs. Julian, Charlie White, the pugilist's trainer, Emil Rober, German wrestler. "Nero," the fighting lion, was also of the party, together with four crates of live chickens, which will constitute Fitzsimmons' chief article of food on the journey. Fitzsimmons will go to Corpus Christi, Tex., where he will train until he goes to Dallas to fight for the championship.

Speaking on the subject of the referee to be selected for the fight with Corbett, Fitzsimmons said: "The difference in relation to the referee has been finally settled. The names of six men will be submitted one week before the fight, three men by each side, and then these six men will select one from their number who will be the referee." Fitzsimmons would have nothing to say as to what he thought would be the outcome of the fight, except "I shall do my best."

HOT WEATHER OVER.

The Weather Man Says the Wave Will Be Broken Today.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Willis L. Moore, chief of the weather bureau, has given out the following weather bulletin:

"The hot wave will be broken some time today, probably in the afternoon in Chicago, St. Louis and in the states of the upper Mississippi valley, central Mississippi valley, upper lake region, Texas, Arkansas and west portions of Tennessee and Kentucky and Eastern Minnesota. A decided and sudden fall in temperature of not less than 30 degrees will be ushered in by heavy thunderstorms and rain, by several days of cool weather."

Much Suffering in Madagascar.

PARIS, Sept. 23.—Mail advices received here from Madagascar reveal a deplorable condition of affairs in that island. In hospitals calculated for the accommodation of 250 men are crowded 600 French soldiers lying upon improvised bunks and but insufficiently attended by doctors and nurses. In each hospital hundreds of patients are lying groaning upon the bare ground and suffering for lack of medicine and food, while the filthiness that prevails everywhere about them is indescribable.

U. S. Supreme Court to Soon Meet.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The United States supreme court will meet again on Monday, Oct. 4. On that day, after assembling, the justices will call upon the president. The business of the court will commence on the 15th. The first week will be devoted to miscellaneous business. The important cases that were pending at the last session were set for early hearing and will be called Monday, Oct. 21.

Drunk Beside His Wife's Coffin.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—In calling at the home of his sister, who had died, Joseph Mulvey of West Chester found Edward Flannigan, his brother-in-law, drunk beside the coffin that contained the body of his wife. Mulvey was so shocked and vexed that he grasped a shovel and belabored the intoxicated man about the head unmercifully. In the scuffle the coffin fell to the floor.

Women Jump From a Train.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Two women, Katie Martin and Bridget Nolan, got on a train at Riverdale, and after the train pulled out discovered that they were going in the wrong direction, and before anyone could interfere both had jumped off. Miss Nolan was unhurt, while Miss Martin was thrown under the wheels. She was picked up in a dying condition.

Weavers Won't Strike.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Sept. 23.—The Weavers' association has voted almost unanimously not to strike. The meeting was crowded to the doors. Secretary James Whitehead of the association and Secretary Matthew Hart of New Bedford Weavers' association advised the weavers not to strike while the present condition of the market existed.

Americans Won Victory.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—The international athletic games Saturday resulted in an overwhelming victory for the Americans. They won every contest, the Englishmen gaining second place in five events. Four world's records were broken and one was equaled.

She has not absorbed other people of the earth and caught inspiration from them. Her religion is Roman Catholic, and is supported by the state. No fault can be found with that. She has a right to her religion, which is one of the great wings or powers of the church.

The Protestant religion is tolerated, but worship must be in secret and no notice of meetings may be given. There are 60,000 protestants in the country, and an attendance at worship of 8,000 in a population of less than 16,000,000; there are 5,000,000 men and 7,800,000 women who cannot read and write. Education flourishes in England, Germany, France and Italy, and I therefore argue that Spain—this moribund nation that has failed to get into line with the practice of this great age—has forfeited the right to be a dictator, much less a ruler among the nations of the earth. It has the right to exist in ignorance and superstition and to manage its own affairs, but not the right to cruelly oppress its own subjects.

"The time has come for America to say that this oppression of Cuba must come to an end and that very soon. All our memories are on the side of freedom. When we struggled France held out a helping hand and Russia sent her warships to cruise off New York. Can we supinely stand still and let Spain crush the life out of these struggling patriots? I don't call them rebels. They are patriots, as brave as men ever were, and are struggling for the rights of men as we once struggled. [Applause.] Governments move slowly; but there is no need to delay the expression of our sympathy. It is fitting that the voice of the pulpit, the press and the people of this great city, the center of the country, should be heard first."

AN AMERICAN ABUSED.

He Will Ask the State Department to Compel Spain to Pay Indemnity.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—John Sowers, an American sugar planter at Sagua, Cuba, who was imprisoned by General Campos and subsequently ordered to summarily leave Cuba, has passed through Washington on his way to his old home at Warrenton, Va. He will return to Washington in a few days to present his case to the state department. Sowers claims that he was in no wise identified with the insurgents, but was nevertheless imprisoned by Campos' orders for ten days and subjected to many indignities. When released he was forced to leave Cuba on 24 hours' notice. The brief time allowed did not give him an opportunity to arrange for the departure of his wife and children, who are still in Cuba.

Mr. Sowers will ask the state department to demand a heavy indemnity from Spain for interfering with the rights of a law-abiding and inoffensive American citizen. Mr. Sowers says he believes the Cubans will be successful in achieving their independence.

Woman's Brave Fight With a Dog.

WHEELING, Sept. 23.—Mrs. Davis Keyser, who lives near Huntington, has had a terrible battle with a mad dog. A great many dogs in the neighborhood have been attacked with hydrophobia, and when Mrs. Keyser attempted to drive a strange canine from her premises, the brute sprang at her, seized her right breast between its jaws and tore the flesh in a horrible manner. The animal was frothing at the mouth and was biting Mrs. Keyser on the arms when she grappled its jaws and held them apart until assistance arrived. She is in a serious condition.

He Wants to Aid Campos.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 23.—Ventura Farrea, a Spaniard residing in the state of Nichoacan, proposes to raise 200 Spanish cavalry here to go to Cuba and aid Martinez de Campos. The Spanish papers here applaud this scheme as patriotic, while denouncing any attempt to enlist Cubans to aid the patriots.

Doctor Killed in a Runaway.

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—Dr. William LeRoy Wilcox, the oldest medical practitioner in Irving Park, has been almost instantly killed in a runaway. He was driving a team to a survey, and there were with him his son Leon and his stable boy. The boys escaped without serious injury.

Killed in a Freight Wreck.

PERCY, Ills., Sept. 23.—A freight train on the Mobile and Ohio road has been wrecked a few miles north of here. Charles Gerlach of St. Louis was killed and Thomas Conlin of St. Louis badly hurt. The men were stealing a ride on the train and were riding on the car-bumpers.

Three Boys Drowned.

BUFFALO, Sept. 23.—Four boys in a boat have been swamped by a passing tug. The eldest, James Kingsley, managed to escape by hanging onto the boat. The other three, William Boore, 15 years, John Kingsley, 13, and William Denny, 11 years of age, were drowned.

Caution about the Use and Selection of Spectacles

"Persons having normal vision will be able to read this print at a distance of 14 inches from the eye with ease and comfort. Also, they will be able to read with each eye separately. If unable to do so, your eyes are defective and should have immediate attention. When the eye becomes tired from reading, sewing, or if the letters look blurred and run together, it is a sure indication that the vision is failing. The sooner you consult the expert eye doctor, the more certain you will be to secure perfect vision. Continued use of these eyes will result in permanent injury from the strained action upon the muscles of accommodation to supply the defect in the eye."

ATTACKED BY WAITE.

The Ex-Governor Criticizes Ministers at Canton.

HE PREACHED A MOCK SERMON.

Declared the Money Power Hung About the Church's Neck Like a Millstone. Ministers Opposed His Making a Political Speech on Sunday.

CANTON, Sept. 23.—A resolution was introduced in the Methodist conference here censuring the Populists for engaging ex-Governor Waite of Colorado to deliver a political speech here Sunday. The ex-governor appeared, but he postponed his political speech until tonight. Instead he delivered a mock sermon, in which he condemned the money power and criticized the ministers. Among other things he said:

"Christ drove the money changers out of the synagogue. Did anyone ever hear of a Methodist preacher driving the money sharks out of his fold?"

He declared that the money power hung about the neck of the church like a millstone.

The Army of West Virginia.

MIDDLEPORT, O., Sept. 23.—The society of the Army of West Virginia holds its annual reunion here Sept. 23, 26 and 27. General W. H. Powell, president and department commander of Illinois, will be present with his staff. General Charles Townsend, department commander of Ohio, and staff, and Governor William McKinley and staff; General W. E. Bundy, national commander of Veterans and staff; Governor MacCorkle and staff, Generals Asa W. Jones, Asa S. Bushnell, C. H. Grosvenor, J. Warren Keifer, A. J. Warner, Colonel L. H. Williams, James E. Campbell and J. B. Foraker and others have been invited. Colonel William Tingle and his quartette will be present also.

A Big Stove Combine.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 23.—The Vapor Stove Manufacturers' association of the United States was formed in this city Saturday by representatives of 13 factories in Cleveland, Mansfield, O., Chicago, St. Louis, Milwaukee, Lorain, O., Dayton, O., and Elwood, Pa. It is claimed that there is $4,000,000 of paid-in capital. Last year's prices were advanced about 25 per cent for the purpose, it was said, of meeting the increased cost of manufacture. Officers were elected as follows: Charles A. Pope of Cleveland, president; John Ringen of St. Louis, vice president, and Frank L. Alcott of Cleveland, commissioner.

If Ohio Could Speculate.

COLUMBUS, Sept. 23.—Chief Engineer Perkins of the state board of public works has made an estimate of the amount of oil that is being taken out of the state canal lands held by oil companies now under oil leases. It amounts to $3,000,000 in value per day, or $900,000 per year. The state realizes on the leases under which the land is held about $6,000 a year. This loss to the state is the result of the opinion of Attorney General Richards to the effect that the state cannot speculate.

Allowed Contractors to Overcharge.

TOLEDO, Sept. 23.—The report of the committee that has been investigating the affairs of the city engineer's office has been made public. It shows that by a system of favoritism which prevailed during the term of City Engineer Miller, contractors were allowed to overcharge the city to the amount of $7,000 on street pavements and other improvements. A portion of the report states that these overcharges amount in all to about $15,000 but that the city is a sufferer only to the extent named, $7,000.

Democratic Speakers Announced.

COLUMBUS, Sept. 23.—The following speakers have been announced for the opening of the Democratic campaign in this city. At 2:30: James E. Campbell, candidate for governor; John B. Peaslee of Cincinnati, candidate for lieutenant governor; ex-Congressman Joseph H. Outwater of this city, L. T. Neal of Bucyrus, John Pollett of Cincinnati, John A. McMahon of Dayton, John H. Clarke of Youngstown and John A. Horton.

Trying to Buy Valkyrie III.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23.—C. Oliver Iselin has written a letter to J. M. Munyon of this city, who has been endeavoring to purchase the Valkyrie III, saying that Defender will positively not race against this season. Mr. Munyon, however, is still keeping up a correspondence with Lord Dunraven and expects to be able to get the English boat.

Pierce Forest and Marsh Fires.

GREEN BAY, Wis., Sept. 23.—Forest and marsh fires have broken out and the flames are raging along the west shores of Green Bay and in the north-west timberlands of Door county. An extensive fire is sweeping through the northern part of the Onondaga reservation, west of this city, and threatens destruction to many farm buildings. The wind is blowing a hurricane.

PEARY'S TRIP A FAILURE.

The Relief Expedition Found Him and Companions Starving.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Sept. 23.—Lieutenant Peary and Hugh J. Lee, with his colored servant Henson, have arrived on the steamer Kite. They were found at Whale sound on Aug. 3 waiting for the Kite and had only ten days previously returned from a great overland expedition, which proved a comparative failure. Independence bay, the most northern part of Greenland was reached early in June, but they were deterred from any great undertaking by insufficiency of food. They were obliged on this account to abandon the attempt to make further progress, nearly all the dogs perished and the remainder had to be shot, owing to the inability to provide them with anything to eat. The Kite met with splendid weather north and started to explore the west of Smith Sound, and traversed the whole coast, visiting Jones Sound, Cape Sabine and Lillleton Island. Two meteorites of almost pure iron were taken aboard the Kite, but another weighing about 40 tons they could not get on board. Many sensational stories are current among the crew of the expedition to which Peary, Lee and Henson were reduced. According to the stories, which the explorers decline to deny, they were almost starved and were forced to eat seal and other refuse to keep alive.

To Free Mrs. Maybrick.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—The Baroness de Roche, mother of Mrs. Florence Maybrick, who is now at Rousa, is said to have communicated with her solicitors in regard to new and important evidence in the Maybrick case, which will be submitted to the home secretary, Sir Matthew White Ridley, who has promised to review the case.

Two Tramps Killed in a Wreck.

JOLIET, Ill., Sept. 23.—A heavily loaded freight train on the Chicago and Alton road going at a terrible rate parted in the middle when near Drummond, eight miles from this city, and two tramps were buried in the ruins. They were dead when taken out. Judge Burke of this city had a leg broken, his back hurt and otherwise badly bruised.

Enormous Losses From Rains.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 23.—Enormous losses have been caused in Eastern Siberia by torrential rains lasting several days. Villages were flooded and most of the houses were carried off. The crops and stock were destroyed and immense damage resulted to the railway.

Cholera on the Increase.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—The Standard's Constantinople correspondent says: "Cholera is increasing here, and in the vicinity of Broussa, about 57 miles southeast of here, it is raging violently."

Carlisle Visits Cleveland.

MARION, Mass., Sept. 23.—Secretary Carlisle has arrived here. In company with Mr. Thurber he went to Buzzard's Bay and called on President Cleveland.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Wellsville had a circus today, but few if any people from this city attended.

George Rowe, who got his hand too close to a buzz saw the other day, is improving and the wound is healing rapidly.

James McGonagle is home from Akron, where he was employed at the pottery. When asked about the strike he refused to talk.

C. J. Thompson, of Clarkson, was taken ill with heart trouble Saturday and a physician summoned from this city. He is slightly improved.

A rider mounted on a sleepy looking horse caused a commotion on Sixth street on Saturday evening. His horse scared at a street car, and pranced around in a vain attempt to unseat its rider.

The intense heat of Saturday night had a visible effect upon the attendance at the presentation of "Charleston," but there were enough in the audience to say that the cast did better than ever.

A number of wheelmen went to Frankfort Springs and other pleasure resorts in this vicinity yesterday. By starting early they escaped the intense heat. Several visiting wheelmen were in town.

The heat of yesterday following close upon the torrid weather of last week crushed the city completely. A cold wave is coming, and if it is not melted before reaching here, the temperature will be more pleasant this evening.

The business men were happy on Saturday night because it was big pay and the people were out in force. The business done in the city was enormous, being much greater in some instances than has been known before this year.

When Tag McClane and Mitchell McClure were riding a tandem in Wellsville Saturday afternoon, they struck a boy and got a fall. The lad was not injured except a few bruises. The boys brought the tandem home on a street car.

The extremely hot weather and small amount of rain this year will, according to a lumber dealer, be the cause of many leaky roofs before many months pass by. He claims that never in his experience have shingle roofs been in such condition.

Friends of John Kreps will be pleased to learn that he is recovering from an operation performed in the West Penn hospital last week and that the doctors found it unnecessary to amputate his foot. It is thought that his lameness will be entirely removed.

It is said that a well known young potter employed at one of the uptown potteries has been missing for several days, the probable result of a debauch and a quarrel with his wife. An effort was made on Saturday to locate the man, but without success. He is thought to be in the vicinity of Pittsburgh.

It has been suggested and in good faith that some arrangement be made whereby the street sweeper can work on Saturday night. The business portion of town looks well after it has been swept on Saturday morning, but it is an awful sight on Sunday. The sweeping could be done just as well at night.

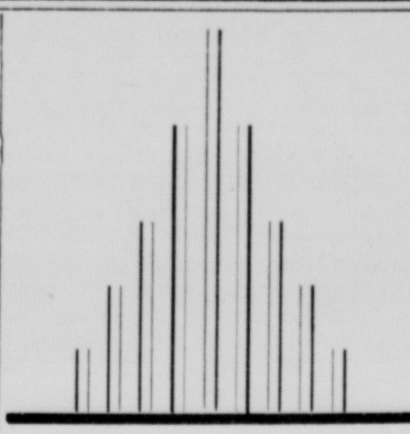

Charley Tarr, the well known pianist who is traveling with the St. Perkins company, writes the News Review that he has a good position, and in the season will travel through Texas, Florida, Alabama, Tennessee and Georgia. At present they are in Indiana and are playing to good houses.

The Phoenix club will entertain tomorrow evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Simmers and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sebring, who arrived home on Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Sebring have already commenced housekeeping at their residence on Sixth street, and Mr. and Mrs. Simmers will soon occupy their cosy home on Avondale street.

Not more than a few hundred people gathered in the Diamond last Saturday evening to hear Smith and Odell, the Prohibition speakers, talk their doctrine. There were seats for those who stayed so long that they wanted to sit down. The old parties were denounced in stereotyped terms and the Prohibition movement lauded to the skies in much the same manner.

The building spirit has returned to the city with the fresh breath of better times, and a number of new residences will be erected in the near future. The house to be built by Adolf Fritz, on his beautiful Fourth street property, is to be a beauty, and several others already under contract are above the average dwelling house in cost and appointments.

Mrs. Ida Smith, the woman who caused a commotion by running away with Dad Meador, was bound over to court by the mayor of Steubenville in the sum of $250, and not sent to the workhouse as was stated on Saturday. A Steubenville report says that on learning of the arrest of his companion, Meador hastily crossed the river to West Virginia.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

I think I have something that you ought to have, And something you have that I need; Now if you think as I think, we both think alike, And in that case I think we're agreed.

I think that good shoes you should have for your feet; And I'm sure you can get them from me; While I need your good cash to replenish my purse---

Good shoes for good cash, don't you see? Now the shoes which I offer I think are as good

As the cash that I ask you to pay. Won't we both then be suited by making the trade? I think so; now what do you say?

ATTACKED BY WAITE.
The Ex-Governor Criticizes Ministers at Canton.
HE PREACHED A MOCK SERMON.

Declared the Money Power Hung About the Church's Neck Like a Millstone.
Ministers Opposed His Making a Political Speech on Sunday.

CANTON, Sept. 23.—A resolution was introduced in the Methodist conference here censuring the Populists for engaging ex-Governor Waite of Colorado to deliver a political speech here Sunday. The ex-governor appeared, but he postponed his political speech until tonight. Instead he delivered a mock sermon, in which he condemned the money power and criticised the ministers. Among other things he said:

"Christ drove the money changers out of the synagogue. Did anyone ever hear of a Methodist preacher driving the money sharks out of his fold?"

He declared that the money power hung about the neck of the church like a millstone.

The Army of West Virginia.

MIDDLEPORT, O., Sept. 23.—The society of the Army of West Virginia holds its annual reunion here Sept. 25, 26 and 27. General W. H. Powell, president and department commander of Illinois, will be present with his staff. General Charles Townsend, department commander of Ohio, and staff, and Governor William McKinley and staff; General W. E. Bundy, national commander Sons of Veterans, and staff; Governor MacCorkle and staff, Generals Asa W. Jones, Asa S. Bushnell, C. H. Grosvenor, J. Warren Keifer, A. J. Warner, Colonel L. H. Williams, James E. Campbell and J. B. Foraker and others have been invited. Colonel William Tingle and his quartette will be present also.

A Big Stove Combine.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 23.—The Vapor Stove Manufacturers' association of the United States was formed in this city Saturday by representatives of 13 factories in Cleveland, Mansfield, O., Chicago, St. Louis, Milwaukee, Lorain, O., Dayton, O., and Elwood, Pa. It is claimed that there is $1,000,000 of paid-in capital. Last year's prices were advanced about 25 per cent for the purpose, it was said, of meeting the increased cost of manufacture. Officers were elected as follows: Charles A. Pope of Cleveland, president; John Ringen of St. Louis, vice president, and Frank L. Alcott of Cleveland, commissioner.

If Ohio Could Speculate.

COLUMBUS, Sept. 23.—Chief Engineer Perkins of the state board of public works has made an estimate of the amount of oil that is being taken out of the state canal lands held by oil companies now under oil leases. It amounts to $3,000 in value per day, or $900,000 per year. The state realizes on the leases under which the land is held about $6,000 a year. This loss to the state is the result of the opinion of Attorney General Richards to the effect that the state cannot speculate.

Attended Contractors to Overcharge.

TOLDO, Sept. 23.—The report of the committee that has been investigating the affairs of the city engineer's office has been made public. It shows that by a system of favoritism which prevailed during the term of City Engineer Miller, contractors were allowed to overcharge the city to the amount of $7,000 on street pavements and other improvements. A portion of the report states that these overcharges amount in all to about $15,000 but that the city is a sufferer only to the extent named, $7,000.

Democratic Speakers Announced.

COLUMBUS, Sept. 23.—The following speakers have been announced for the opening of the Democratic campaign in this city. James E. Campbell, candidate for governor; John B. Peaslee of Cincinnati, candidate for lieutenant governor; ex-Congressman Joseph H. Outwater of this city, L. T. Neal of Bucyrus, John Follett of Cincinnati, John A. McMahon of Dayton, John H. Clarke of Youngstown and John A. Horton.

Trying to Buy Valkyrie III.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23.—C. Oliver Iselin has written a letter to J. M. Munyon of this city, who has been endeavoring to purchase the Valkyrie III, saying that "Defender" will positively not race again this season. Mr. Munyon, however, is still keeping up a correspondence with Lord Dunraven and expects to be able to get the English boat.

Fierce Forest and Marsh Fires.

GREEN BAY, Wis., Sept. 23.—Forest and marsh fires have broken out and the flames are raging along the west shore of Green Bay and in the north-west timberlands of Door county. An extensive fire is sweeping through the northern part of the Ouedia reservation, west of this city, and threatens destruction to many farm buildings. The wind is blowing a hurricane.

PEARY'S TRIP A FAILURE.

The Relief Expedition Found Him and Companions Starving.

St. Johns, N. F., Sept. 23.—Lieutenant Peary and Hugh J. Lee, with his colored servant Henson, have arrived on the steamer Kite. They were found at Whale sound on Aug. 3 waiting for the Kite and had only ten days previously returned from a great overland expedition, which proved a comparative failure. Independence bay, the most northern part of Greenland was reached early in June, but they were deterred from any great undertaking by insufficiency of food. They were obliged on this account to abandon the attempt to make further progress, nearly all the dogs perished and the remainder had to be shot, owing to the inability to provide them with anything to eat.

The Kite met with splendid weather and started to explore the west of Smith Sound, and traversed the whole coast, visiting Jones Sound, Cape Sabine and Littleton Island. Two meteorites of almost pure iron were taken aboard the Kite, but another weighing about 40 tons they could not get on board. Many sensational stories are current among the crew of the extremities to which Peary, Lee and Henson were reduced. According to the stories, which the explorers decline to deny, they were almost starved and were forced to eat seal and other refuse to keep alive.

To Free Mrs. Maybrick.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—The Baroness de Roque, mother of Mrs. Florence Maybrick, who is now at Rousa, is said to have communicated with her solicitors in regard to new and important evidence in the Maybrick case, which will be submitted to the home secretary, Sir Matthew White Ridley, who has promised to review the case.

Two Tramps Killed in a Wreck.

JOLIET, Ill., Sept. 23.—A heavily loaded freight train on the Chicago and Alton road, going at a terrific rate parted in the middle when near Joliet, Monday, eight miles from this city, and two tramps were buried in the ruins. They were dead when taken out. Judge Burke of this city had a leg broken, his back hurt and otherwise badly bruised.

Enormous Losses From Rains.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 23.—Enormous losses have been caused in several Siberia by torrential rains lasting several days. Villages were flooded and most of the houses were carried off. The crops and stock were destroyed and immense damage resulted to the railway.

Cholera on the Increase.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Wellsville had a circus today, but few if any people from this city attended.

George Rowe, who got his hand too close to a buzz saw the other day, is improving and the wound is healing rapidly.

James McGonagle is home from Akron, where he was employed at the pottery. When asked about the strike he refused to talk.

C. J. Thompson, of Clarkson, was taken ill with heart trouble Saturday and a physician summoned from this city. He is slightly improved.

A rider mounted on a sleepy looking horse caused a commotion on Sixth street on Saturday evening. His horse scared at a street car, and pranced around in a vain attempt to unseat its rider.

The intense heat of Saturday night had a visible effect upon the attendance at the presentation of "Charleston," but there were enough in the audience to say that the cast did better than ever.

A number of wheelmen went to Frankfort Springs and other pleasure resorts in this vicinity yesterday. By starting early they escaped the intense heat. Several visiting wheelmen were in town.

The heat of yesterday following close upon the torrid weather of last week crushed the city completely. A cold wave is coming, and if it is not melted before reaching here, the temperature will be more pleasant this evening.

The business men were happy on Saturday night because it was big pay and the people were out in force. The business done in the city was enormous, being much greater in some instances than has been known before this year.

When Tag McClane and Mitchell McClure were riding a tandem in Wellsville Saturday afternoon, they struck a boy and got a fall. The lad was not injured except a few bruises. The boys brought the tandem home on a street car.

The extremely hot weather and small amount of rain this year will, according to a lumber dealer, be the cause of many leaky roofs before many months pass by. He claims that never in his experience have shingle roofs been in such condition.

Friends of John Kreps will be pleased to learn that he is recovering from an operation performed in the West Penn hospital last week and that the doctors found it unnecessary to amputate his foot. It is thought that his lameness will be entirely removed.

It is said that a well known young potter employed at one of the uptown potteries has been missing for several days, the probable result of a debauch and a quarrel with his wife. An effort was made on Saturday to locate the man, but without success. He is thought to be in the vicinity of Pittsburgh.

It has been suggested and in good faith that some arrangement be made whereby the street sweeper can work on Saturday night. The business portion of town looks well after it has been swept on Saturday morning, but it is an awful sight on Sunday. The sweeping could be done just as well at night.

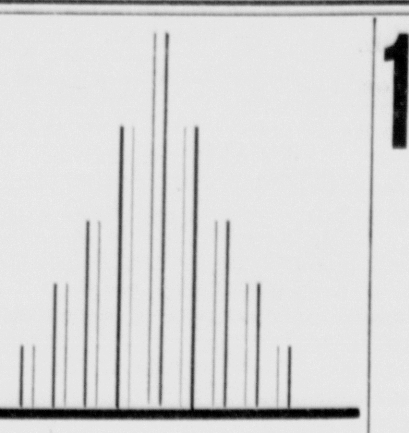

Charley Tarr, the well known pianist who is traveling with the St. Perkins company, writes the NEWS REVIEW that he has a good position, and in the season will travel through Texas, Florida, Alabama, Tennessee and Georgia. At present they are in Indiana and are playing to good houses.

The Phoenix club will entertain tomorrow evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Simmers and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sebring, who arrived home on Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Sebring have already commenced housekeeping at their residence on Sixth street, and Mr. and Mrs. Simmers will soon occupy their cosy home on Avondale street.

Not more than a few hundred people gathered in the Diamond last Saturday evening to hear Smith and Odell, the Prohibition speakers, talk their doctrine. There were seats for those who stayed so long that they wanted to sit down. The old parties were denounced in stereotyped terms and the Prohibition movement lauded to the skies in much the same manner.

The building spirit has returned to the city with the fresh breath of better times, and a number of new residences will be erected in the near future. The house to be built by Adolph Fritz, on his beautiful Fourth street property, is to be a beauty, and several others already under contract are above the average dwelling house in cost and appointments.

Mrs. Ida Smith, the woman who caused a commotion by running away with Dad Meador, was bound over to court by the mayor of Steubenville in the sum of $250, and not sent to the workhouse as was stated on Saturday. A Steubenville report says that on learning of the arrest of his companion, Meador hastily crossed the river to West Virginia.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

I think I have something that you ought to have, And something you have that I need; Now if you think as I think, we both think alike, And in that case I think we're agreed.

I think that good shoes you should have for your feet; And I'm sure you can get them from me; While I need your good cash to replenish my purse--

Good shoes for good cash, don't you see? Now the shoes which I offer I think are as good

As the cash that I ask you to pay. Won't we both then be suited by making the trade? I think so; now what do you say?

WHY NOT

Does every man, woman and child endeavor to do the best they possibly can for themselves? It is human nature. Just the same reason that when a man or boy needs a new suit of clothes he strikes for our store. He does waste time in going around among our competitors. They know by actual experience that we not only make it pleasant for you while at our store, but make it profitable as well. We want to keep you for our customer, and will

TRY IT.

Our best to give you such satisfaction that we may always retain you for our customer. Our line of suits for men and boys this fall is exceedingly large, and our prices are so low that our competitors do not attempt to keep pace with us. Have you ever tried our store. If not, try

You will never regret it. Our values are big in each department. We do not handle trash in any line; you'll have to get that some place else, but we retail clothing, hats, caps, furnishings, goods, trunks, valises, etc., of surpassing worth, for the same price you pay for trash in other stores.

WHAT

Will you not for fall wear? A Suit, Overcoat, Hat, Underwear, or possibly single pants? It matters not. We want you to pay us a visit. We guarantee we will make it pay you. Don't forget that we carry the most complete line of Trunks and Valises in the city. We want your trade. Come and see us.

orderly and sentenced to the work-house.

Jack Wintergill was very drunk on Second street on Saturday night when Officer Earle gathered him in. He went gleefully on his way after giving security for the amount.

Mitchell Lambright entered a charge of assault and battery in mayor's court today against Squire A. R. Gould, but when the squire demanded that he put up the costs for the action the charge was withdrawn, and will probably go to some local justice shop. Lambright is a farmer, and his horses were chewing the squire's shade trees Saturday. When the squire objected Lambright started for him, but ran against a good sized fist, and sat down.

SMITE THE TURK.

A Strong Expression From the Pulpit, Other Services.

The First Methodist Episcopal church was crowded yesterday morning with its own members and Presbyterians to hear Doctor Lee, who occupied the pulpit for Doctor Huston, who was in Canton attending conference. The gentleman during the course of his sermon touched upon the condition of the persecuted Armenians, and advised that, if all other measures failed, the nation assert its right and smite the Turk. He styled the Armenians the best of the port's subjects, and eloquently, but briefly, presented their cause. The evening service was equally well attended, and special music was provided for both.

Doctor Taggart delivered a sensational sermon yesterday morning, making assertions which caused his congregation to open their eyes in wonder and astonishment.

The Silver Lake quartet and Mr. Hopkins drew a large crowd to the Methodist Protestant church on Sunday evening. They sang so much better than the ordinary traveling combinations that praises were heard on every side. Mr. Hopkins delivered a forcible appeal for Prohibition; the songs were all on that same line. They will appear again this evening, and tomorrow night you want to go early if you want a seat.

SAYS THEY WILL SUFFER.

A Potter Was Goaded Pastured While In Saturday Night.

A local potter entered a car at the power house Saturday night about 8 o'clock, greatly excited. His trousers were wet to the knees and his shoes were full of Ohio river water. He told the motorman he hadn't been doing anything wrong and he could put him off the car if he thought he had. As this was a strange declaration and the man was breathless and trembling, the passengers divined what had happened and their suspicions were correct. It was a case of goosepasture and his supposed friends had run him through the river at the lower end of Babb's island. He told the passengers all about it and said he would prosecute his tormentors, as he had been ill with "delirious fever" all afternoon. Later he admitted to a reporter that he had been drunk and had slept off the effects at the home of a friend.

Have You Noticed That

The finest display of cabinets and superbly finished pictures is at Edmonston's gallery, in the Diamond. The electric light display at the foot of the stairs attracted general attention on Saturday night, and was the subject of general commendation. Edmonston is strictly in the swim, and his push and energy, combined with the most artistic work, places him in the first rank of photographers. Test his work.

While in Chicago, Mr. Charles L. Kahler, a prominent shoe merchant of Des Moines, Iowa, had quite a serious time of it. He took such a severe cold that he could hardly talk or navigate, but the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured him of his cold so quickly that others at the hotel who had bad colds followed his example and half a dozen persons ordered it from the nearest drug store. They were profuse in their thanks to Mr. Kahler for telling them how to cure a bad cold so quickly. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, Sixth and West Market street, druggists.

Building New Houses.

The J. T. Smith Lumber company has secured a contract for the erection of a handsome residence for Adolph Fritz, cost $4,000, on Fourth street, and another for Tomp Andrews in East End. It will also build one for C. C. Thompson on Fourth street and W. L. Thompson in Thompson Place.

A. M. Bailey, a well known citizen of Eugene, Oregon, says his wife has for years been troubled with chronic diarrhea and used many remedies with little relief until she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy, which has cured her sound and well. Give it a trial and you will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. Twenty-five and 50-cent bottles for sale by Alvin H. Bulger, Sixth and West Market streets, druggists.

BREAKING THE LAW.

The Sunday Closing Not What Was Expected.

After three trials the Sunday closing movement has not excited the terror and inconvenience that was promised, and many purchases could have been made yesterday. The ice wagons were not on the streets, and a milk wagon could not have been found with a microscope, but it is said that milk could have been bought almost anywhere. Those who were on the inside could buy cigars, but the soft drink was not available, neither was ice cream seen sold anywhere in town. "If the advocates of Sunday closing stop where it is now," remarked a dealer, "no man in town can object."

FINISH ON FRIDAY.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics Will Then Have Information.

Mr. Johnson and Mr. Lewis, the gentlemen who have been here learning all that can be known of the potteries for the bureau of labor statistics of Ohio, will have their work completed by Friday, and will return to Columbus. Acknowledging Liverpool as the center of the potting industry, the gentlemen have here gathered a vast amount of information for use in the report which will appear next year. They realize that but little is known of the potting industry outside of towns where the manufacture of ware is carried on, and will make the report complete.

MORE SENSATION.

Another Divorce Suit That Is Beyond the Ordinary.

Special to NEWS REVIEW.

Lisbon, Sept. 23.—Mrs. Etta Addis, of Clarkson, asked a divorce in court today from her husband, Fisher Addis. She charges that a year ago she was compelled to leave him because of his unfaithfulness, and names Iva Morlan and Mary Brown as respondents. The pair were married in 1887, and they have one child, the custody of which the wife wants.

With Squire Morley.

Patrick Costelow today confessed judgment to the amount of the bill for which Bill Bros. last week entered suit.

The case of O. Schmidtbauer against Mrs. Small, involving the price of a coal house, was dismissed today at the cost of the plaintiff.

Thomas Humphries will be given an opportunity in the court of Squire Morley to prove tomorrow that he has a just claim against Patrick Costelow.

Two Games of Ball.

The Columbians, of East End, went to New Cumberland on Saturday, and were defeated by a score of 14 to 4.

Percy Albright and Nibbo Carey were in Palestine playing ball with that club on Saturday, when it faced Salem, and came home smiling. Salem was easy, and Palestine won by 24 to 4. Albright only pitched one inning, the management soon discovering that his services were not needed.

Enforced the Law.

Chief Gill and the police enforced the law against loafing on the corners on Saturday night, and kept the crowds moving wherever it was possible. Some people objected, but the police were firm, and the crowds passed on when ordered. The new order of things was appreciated, and people who had to walk had more room on the sidewalks in the Diamond.

Too Much Stock.

A story was current this afternoon that all the clay hands at the Pioneer pottery had quit work this morning because they were owed two weeks' pay. At the office the statement was made that they had shut down the works on Friday night because they had too much stock and would do no work for a few weeks. They claimed they paid on Saturday as usual.

Escaped From West Virginia.

A bunch of fine, fat quail escaped from the West Virginia fields this morning, and crossing the river, alighted in the yard of Frank Pilgrim, not far from the shore. They were beauties, and the mouths of a few sportsmen who chanced to see them fairly watered with delight, but they let the plump little fellows alone, and they soon disappeared.

A painful Accident.

Will Hill while fishing at Fernwood last week met with a painful accident. His foot was caught on a slippery rock, and before he could release it half of the heel was torn loose. It is a peculiar wound and makes the victim walk with a limp.

TREASURY OPERATIONS.

How Expenditures Are Manipulated to Lessen the Deficit.

The August operations of the treasury department were a repetition of the thimble-rigging practices that have been resorted to for months to improve the showing of "four successful tariff." That our readers may see for themselves how payments are held up in the closing days of the month in order to make a favorable book-keeping exhibit for the reform revenue law, we bring together below the statements of daily expenditures given out by the department.

Let us recall as samples the statements of expenditures the last two days of July:

July 30.....Expenditures.....$ 58,000

July 31.....".....150,000

The treasury statements for August to and including the 25th, show the following:

August 1.....Daily Expenditures.....$1,062,000

August 2.....".....1,462,000

August 3.....".....1,560,000

August 4—Sunday.....".....2,944,000

August 5.....".....1,520,500

August 6.....".....1,458,000

August 7.....".....1,067,000

August 8.....".....1,828,800

August 9.....".....1,281,300

August 10—Sunday.....".....1,900,000

August 11.....".....1,160,000

August 12.....".....1,305,000

August 13.....".....1,750,000

August 14.....".....800,000

August 15—Sunday.....".....872,300

August 16.....".....1,174,100

August 17.....".....1,072,000

August 18.....".....958,400

August 19.....".....1,410,800

August 20.....".....896,000

August 21.....".....730,000

August 22—Sunday.....".....866,000

August 23.....".....422,000

August 24.....".....430,000

August 25.....".....554,000

August 26.....".....355,000

August 27.....".....314,000

Mark the change from July 31 to Aug. 1, and how steadily the big outgoing were continued till the middle of August, to which date their average exceeded $1,500,000 per day. At the close of business Aug. 15 the deficit for the month was $7,181,336. From that point the squeezing of payments is noticeable. Only on three days were they permitted to reach a million. The compress tightened as the end of the month came in sight. The deficit Aug. 31 was down to $3,693,103, enabling Mr. Carlisle to "point with pride" to receipts "almost" meeting expenditures—not obligations. On the 28th not a cent was allowed for pensions, navy or interest, and only $5,000 for the war department. The sugar bounty appropriation, a lump of $5,000,000, has been two months payable, but not a penny has yet been paid. The total receipts for August were $28,952,696; the expenditure $32,645,800. Since July 1 the receipts have been $58,022,394 and expenditures $71,193,863, leaving a deficit of $13,171,469.

Foraker Indorses McKinley.

"I had something to do with making the platform. I believed in it then—every line of it from beginning to the end. I believe in it now. I was willing to stand on it then, and I am willing to stand on it still. There is not any provision in it that met my approbation more heartily, more unreservedly than that next year Ohio Republicans should stand as one man in presenting Governor McKinley to the national convention as our candidate for president. By long years of faithful and distinguished service to his party he has won for himself that high honor, and after we have carried Ohio this year for General Bushnell, as we shall, we will be in splendid form to ask something of the Republicans of the United States."—J. B. Foraker at Springfield.

Foraker to the Governor.

Come, friend McKinley, you and I will stand for peace and unity. Our cause is great and we are just. The agents of a common good will. So, here's to mutual good will. And I'll be Joe, as you are Bill.

Our friends, the enemy, disclose The greatest joy when we are foes. But here's a handshake, good and strong. Which says their hopes are wholly wrong. And that ambition can not fill The heart of Joe with hate of Bill.

Together we will take the stump; Together we will storm that "hump" And, with the aid of soldiers true, We'll capture all the Campbells, too—Content with what may come to fill The cup of joy for Joe and Bill.

Strikes to Be Declared Oct. 1 Where the Scale Is Not Signed.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 23.—Sixty delegates, representing 12,000 organized miners of the Pittsburgh district, met here Saturday at the call of District President Cairns. National President Penna was present and advised the men as to a proper mode of procedure, and was not slow in telling them that the organized miners of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois were prepared to back up any action taken by the miners of the Pittsburgh district.

It was finally decided that on Oct. 1 strikes should be declared at mines where the scale was not signed as agreed to at a conference between the operators and miners last July. This scale calls for 64 cents a ton where there is no company store, 69 cents with a company store and uniform screens.

In case this scale is generally established Illinois miners will receive 90 cents, Indiana 70 cents, Ohio 60 cents, and the wages of miners in the central district of Pennsylvania will also be advanced.

orderly and sentenced to the work-house.

Jack Wintergill was very drunk on Second street on Saturday night when Officer Earle gathered him in. He went gleefully on his way after giving security for the amount.

Mitchell Lambright entered a charge of assault and battery in mayor's court today against Squire A. R. Gould, but when the squire demanded that he put up the costs for the action the charge was withdrawn, and will probably go to some local justice shop. Lambright is a farmer, and his horses were chewing the squire's shade trees Saturday. When the squire objected Lambright started for him, but ran against a good sized fist, and sat down.

SMITE THE TURK.

A Strong Expression From the Pulpit. Other Services.

The First Methodist Episcopal church was crowded yesterday morning with its own members and Presbyterians to hear Doctor Lee, who occupied the pulpit for Doctor Huston, who was in Canton attending conference. The gentleman during the course of his sermon touched upon the condition of the persecuted Armenians, and advised that, if all other measures failed, the nation assert its right and smite the Turk. He styled the Armenians the best of the port's subjects, and eloquently, but briefly, presented their cause. The evening service was equally well attended, and special music was provided for both.

Doctor Taggart delivered a sensational sermon yesterday morning, making assertions which caused his congregation to open their eyes in wonder and astonishment.

The Silver Lake quartet and Mr. Hopkins drew a large crowd to the Methodist Protestant church on Sunday evening. They sing so much better than the ordinary traveling combinations that praises were heard on every side. Mr. Hopkins delivered a forcible appeal for Prohibition; the songs were all on that same line. They will appear again this evening, and tomorrow night you want to go early if you want a seat.

SAYS THEY WILL SUFFER.

A Potter Was Goose Pastured While In Saturday Night.

A local potter entered a car at the power house Saturday night about 8 o'clock, greatly excited. His trousers were wet to the knees and his shoes were full of Ohio river water. He told the motorman he hadn't been doing anything wrong and he could put him off the car if he thought he had. As this was a strange declaration and the man was breathless and trembling, the passengers divined what had happened and their suspicions were correct. It was a case of goosepasture and his supposed friends had run him through the river at the lower end of Babb's island. He told the passengers all about it and said he would prosecute his tormentors, as he had been ill with "delirious fever" all afternoon. Later he admitted to a reporter that he had been drunk and had slept off the effects at the home of a friend.

Have You Noticed That

The finest display of cabinets and superbly finished pictures is at Edmonston's gallery, in the Diamond. The electric light display at the foot of the stairs attracted general attention on Saturday night, and was the subject of general commendation. Edmonston is strictly in the swim, and his push and energy, combined with the most artistic work, places him in the first rank of photographers. Test his work.

While in Chicago, Mr. Charles L. Kahler, a prominent shoe merchant of Des Moines, Iowa, had quite a serious time of it. He took such a severe cold that he could hardly talk or navigate, but the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured him of his cold so quickly that others at the hotel who had bad colds followed his example and half a dozen persons ordered it from the nearest drug store. They were profuse in their thanks to Mr. Kahler for telling them how to cure a bad cold so quickly. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, Sixth and West Market street, druggists.

Building New Houses.

The J. T. Smith Lumber company has secured a contract for the erection of a handsome residence for Adolph Fritz, cost $4,000, on Fourth street, and another for Tomp Andrews in East End. It will also build one for C. C. Thompson on Fourth street and W. L. Thompson in Thompson Place.

A. M. Bailey, a well known citizen of Eugene, Oregon, says his wife has for years been troubled with chronic diarrhoea and used many remedies with little relief until she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which has cured her sound and well. Give it a trial and you will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by Alvin H. Bulger, Sixth and West Market streets, druggists.

BREAKING THE LAW.

The Sunday Closing Not What Was Expected.

After three trials the Sunday closing movement has not excited the terror and inconvenience that was promised, and many purchases could have been made yesterday. The ice wagons were not on the streets, and a milk wagon could not have been found with a microscope, but it is said that milk could have been bought almost anywhere. Those who were on the inside could buy cigars, but the soft drink was not available, neither was ice cream seen sold anywhere in town. "If the advocates of Sunday closing stop where it is now," remarked a dealer, "no man in town can object."

FINISH ON FRIDAY.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics Will Then Have Information.

Mr. Johnson and Mr. Lewis, the gentlemen who have been here learning all that can be known of the potteries for the bureau of labor statistics of Ohio, will have their work completed by Friday, and will return to Columbus. Acknowledging Liverpool as the center of the potting industry, the gentlemen have here gathered a vast amount of information for use in the report which will appear next year. They realize that but little is known of the potting industry outside of towns where the manufacture of ware is carried on, and will make the report complete.

TREASURY OPERATIONS.

How Expenditures Are Manipulated to Lessen the Deficit.

The August operations of the treasury department were a repetition of the thimble-rigging practices that have been resorted to for months to improve the showing of "our successful tariff." That our readers may see for themselves how payments are held up in the closing days of the month in order to make a favorable book-keeping exhibit for the reform revenue law, we bring together below the statements of daily expenditures given out by the department.

Let us recall as samples the statements of expenditures the last two days of July:

July 30.....	Expenditures.
Sally 31.....	$ 58,000
Sally 31.....	150,000

The treasury statements for August to and including the 25th, show the following:

August 1.....	Daily Expenditures.
August 1.....	$1,962,000
August 2.....	1,462,000
August 3.....	1,568,000
August 4—Sunday.....	2,944,000
August 5.....	1,539,500
August 6.....	1,458,000
August 7.....	1,467,000
August 8.....	1,285,300
August 9.....	1,281,900
August 10—Sunday.....	1,900,000
August 11.....	1,163,000
August 12.....	1,308,000
August 13.....	1,766,000
August 14.....	699,900
August 15—Sunday.....	872,300
August 16.....	1,178,100
August 17.....	1,072,000
August 18.....	985,400
August 19.....	1,410,800
August 20.....	866,000
August 21—Sunday.....	730,000
August 22.....	966,000
August 23.....	432,000
August 24.....	496,000
August 25.....	514,000
August 26.....	355,000
August 27.....	314,000

Mark the change from July 31 to Aug. 1, and how steadily the big outgoes were continued till the middle of August, to which date their average exceeded $1,500,000 per day. At the close of business Aug. 15 the deficit for the month was $7,181,396. From that point the squeezing of payments is noticeable. Only on three days were they permitted to reach a million. The compress tightened as the end of the month came in sight. The deficit Aug. 31 was down to $3,693,103, enabling Mr. Carlisle to "poat with pride" to receipts "almost" meeting expenditures—not obligations. On the 28th not a cent was allowed for pensions, navy or interest, and only $5,000 for the war department. The sugar bounty appropriation, a lump of $5,500,000, has been two months payable, but not a penny has yet been paid. The total receipts for August were $38,952,696; the expenditure $32,645,800. Since July 1 the receipts have been $58,022,394 and expenditures $71,193,863, leaving a deficit of $13,171,469.

Foraker Indorses McKinley.

"I had something to do with making the platform. I believed in it then—every line of it from beginning to the end. I believe in it now. I was willing to stand on it then and I am willing to stand on it still. There is not any provision in it that met my approbation more heartily, more unreservedly than that next year Ohio Republicans should stand as one man in presenting Governor McKinley to the national convention as our candidate for president. By long years of faithful and distinguished service to his party he has won for himself the high honor, and after we have carried Ohio this year for General Bushnell, as we shall, we will be in splendid form to ask something of the Republicans of the United States."—J. B. Foraker at Springfield.

Foraker to the Governor.

Cong. friend McKinley, you and I will stand for peace and unity; Our cause is great and we are just The agents of a common trust; So, here's to mutual good will And I'll be Joe, as you are Bill.

Our friends, the enemy, disclose The greatest joy when we are foes, But here's a handshake, good and strong, Which says their hopes are wholly wrong And that ambition can not fill The heart of Joe with hate of Bill.

Together we will take the stump; Together we will storm that "hump" And, with the aid of soldiers true, We'll capture all the Campbell's, too— Content with what may come to fill The cup of joy for Joe and Bill.

MINERS WILL GO OUT.

Strikes to Be Declared Oct. 1 Where the Scale Is Not Signed.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 23.—Sixty delegates, representing 12,000 organized miners of the Pittsburg district, met here Saturday at the call of District President Cairns. National President Penna was present and advised the men as to a proper mode of procedure, and was not slow in telling them that the organized miners of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois were prepared to back up any action taken by the miners of the Pittsburg district.

It was finally decided that on Oct. 1 strikes should be declared at mines where the scale was not signed as agreed to at a conference between the operators and miners last July. This scale calls for 64 cents a ton where there is no company store, 69 cents with a company store and uniform screens.

In case this scale is generally established Illinois miners will receive 90 cents, Indiana 70 cents, Ohio 60 cents, and the wages of miners in the central district of Pennsylvania will also be advanced.

A Wolf In Sheep's Clothing.

FORT SMITH, Ark., Sept. 23.—The trial of the Blackstone trainrobbers, Buzz Luckey and James Dyer, in the United States court here, has resulted in their conviction. The conviction of Dyer gives great satisfaction to the court officials for he is the man who, for four years, has passed among his neighbors as an honest stock raiser. Yet, during all that time, he was an organizer of outlaw bands and planned more successful train robberies than any other man in America.

A Conflict Between Authorities.

NASHVILLE, Sept. 23.—At Gainesboro, near the Kentucky line, a conflict has arisen between Tennessee and Kentucky sheriffs having requisition papers for the arrest of United States Deputy Marshal Young, charged with murder. They refuse to go, fearing they will be mobbed and have their friends in town armed in force to resist attempts to take them. They are charged with killing a moonshiner.

Ransom May Draw His Salary.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Secretary Carlisle has reversed the ruling of the auditor of the treasury for the state department, and decided that M. W. Ransom, United States minister to Mexico, may draw his salary as such under his present appointment. A draft of $525 on this salary account, drawn by the state department on the treasury, has been honored by order of Secretary Carlisle.

Had War Weapons on Board.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Sept. 23.—The steamer Commodore has been libelled by District Attorney Aycock and the crew arrested by Marshal Carroll under instructions from the attorney general. On examination the cargo was found to consist of cannon, rifles, ammunition and shells. Cuban machetes and sundry suspicious weapons, supposed to be for Cuban insurgents, were also found.

Three Men Roasted Alive.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 23.—Three men were literally roasted alive at the Atlas Paint works, Allegheny, Saturday. The fire was the result of the explosion of a quantity of benzine which ignited through the carelessness of one of the dead men. The dead are: Joseph Lastavice, aged 21, single; Henry Turner, aged 36, leaves a wife and five children; George Tule, aged 23, single.

Fatal Accident While Driving.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Sept. 23.—Four people were badly and two fatally injured in an accident four miles south of this city. Thomas Conner was returning home from a Baptist association and was driving a team. The outfit plunged over a high embankment. The injured are two babies, one of which is in a dying condition; Mrs. Hatton, severely, and Thomas Conner, badly injured.

Perry Prods His Eyes.

ALBANY, Sept. 23.—Oliver Curtis Perry, the train robber, has attempted self-destruction in Auburn prison. He in some manner unknown procured two needles which he placed in a stick in such a way that when he placed the stick across his nose he prodded his eyes. His optics are now badly inflamed.

Murdered a Girl and Himself.

OSKALOOSA, Ia., Sept. 23.—M. E. Stinson of St. Louis, formerly agent for the Rock Island railroad at Fairfield, Ia., at which point his parents' reside, has shot and killed Miss Arta Moore of Panama, and then committed suicide. The girl has for some time past been a student at Iowa college.

A Lynching In Louisiana.

HAMMOND, La., Sept. 23.—William Smith, colored, who, on the morning of Sept. 12, entered the caboose and murdered Tony Poitone, the banana agent on the Illinois Central railroad at Amite City, has been taken from the officers here by a mob and lynched.

Stokes' Stables Burned.

LENOX, Mass., Sept. 23.—The splendid stable at Shadow Brook farm, owned by Anson Stokes of New York, has been totally destroyed by fire. The fire started in the cow stables. Loss $15,000; fully insured.

A Ticket Broker's Serious Case.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 23.—W. I. Gleason, a prominent railroad ticket broker, says he has been robbed of $20,000 by his bookkeeper, T. N. McDonald, and the latter's friend, N. A. McCallister. Both men are in jail.

Pipes For Honolulu.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 23.—The Howard-Harrison ironworks of Bessemer has made a contract with the city authorities of Honolulu for several thousand tons of 18-inch pipe.

Hovas Routed and 80 Killed.

PARIS, Sept. 23.—Advices from Mo-janda say that General Duchesne has surprised 6,000 Hovas in the Tsumandry defile. The Hovas were routed and 80 of them were killed.

An Embezzler Disappears.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Sept. 23.—Elmer E. Rowell, a prominent attorney, has disappeared. He is alleged to be guilty of forgery and embezzlement amounting to $20,000.

Over Twenty Bogus Checks.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Sept. 23.—Bridgeport banks have received over 20 apparently certified checks from banks in Jersey City, Hoboken and other places in the vicinity of New York during the past few days. The checks were all signed "E. S. Morris," and were made payable to G. B. Williams. Each check was made out for amounts of $20 and upward. The banks here detected that the checks were not genuine at once.

No New Smallpox Cases.

WHEELING, Sept. 23.—There has not been a new case of smallpox in the city for over a week, and there are only eight persons under the care of the health department.
